INVITATION TO ATTEND SOUTH GPCME 2025

We are excited to return in 2025 to the Te Pae Convention Centre in Christchurch, a fantastic conference facility. An engaging and diverse medical update program awaits you, hopefully with something new for all.

The South Link Education Trust is the major sponsor and supporter for the 2025 event again. Established in 2003, the South Link Education Trust is a charitable organization dedicated to supporting New Zealand General Practice. Through its associated organizations such as the Best Practice Advocacy Centre (BPAC), South Link Health Services (SLHS), and the New Zealand Medicines Formulary (NZF and NZFc), the Trust remains steadfast in its commitment to advancing New Zealand General Practice.

This year, we will address working within your scope in primary care. The program will kick off with a karakia from the local iwi, offering their blessing and warm welcome.

The Christchurch Memorial Oration "2025- The Age of Extinction: Are we Living Through the End of Days for General Practice?" will be delivered by Orna McGinn, prominent for her work in teaching gynaecology skills to GPs, and with a strong interest in women in medicine.

Sessions will focus on CKD/heart failure, support for doctors in need, paediatrics, AI in healthcare, the multiple faces of shortness of breath, oncology, cardiology, and much more.

Sponsored breakfast sessions will delve into important topics such as workplace issues, COPD and related CVS issues, irritable bowel disease and obesity management. Longer workshops on Thursday will cover dermoscopy and skin cancer surgical skills, in-depth CKD CHF and diabetes management, a whole day of musculoskeletal training, practical gynae procedures, clinician wellbeing as well as issues around burnout, and nurse practitioner focus groups.

Friday will feature a dedicated program for practice managers, with a similar program for practice nurses and nurse practitioners on Saturday. Attendees will have the flexibility to choose sessions according to their interests, with post-conference access to many sessions online.

Two-hour forums will cover a range of topics including travel medicine, dermatology, nutrition, gastroenterology, allergy 101, obesity management, and emerging therapies for breast cancer, supported by expert speakers. CORE courses will also be available throughout the meeting.

We encourage you to utilise the popular conference Whova App, to enjoy the meeting, reconnect with colleagues, exchange ideas, learn new skills, and gain insights to enhance patient care. Additionally, we invite you to explore the local leisure and adventure activities during your stay.

The GPCME Meetings in Rotorua and Christchurch remain dedicated to addressing practical patient management issues and fostering valuable social exchanges. We are thrilled to welcome you all back in 2025.

Practice Based Analytic Processes and Extended Prescribing:

We use evidence-based analytic tools and predictive risk models to segment patients into risk categories facilitating individual and population health management. High-risk individuals are prioritised for interventions to monitor and prevent deterioration of their condition, while low-risk individuals receive quality care with extended prescribing (6 or 12 months) along with monitoring of wellbeing aided by technology. We also support the integration of global analytic tools to long term certification process i.e. ACC 18 and Sickness Benefits. These tools support and aid clinicians in determining optimal return to work timeframes.
